

Absorption Spectra for 3 Standards and Analyte

LOCKER #2

The maximum absorbance in the spectrum of Standard 3 occurs at a wavelength of 527 nm.

For each of your scanned samples, the absorbance value at this unique wavelength is printed on the various absorption spectra below. Copy these values into the table on your laboratory report sheet.

